Do not deny the poor his food and do not make the man who looks at you with pleading eyes, wait. (Sirach 4:1)

Questions People Ask!

Q. When I was young, and that's not today or yesterday, we were told that it was a sin even to knit on a Sunday. I haven't heard a sermon on this for years. Has the Church changed it's teachings?

A. The Catechism now urges us to refrain from work or activities which prevent us from observing the Lord's day. In a prayerful manner, a relaxing hobby like knitting is very much in keeping with the spirit of Sunday. We owe it to God, to our family and to ourselves to have a day of holy restfulness each week. It is sad to see Sunday turned into a big shopping day. The shopping centre is the new temple.

Gardening the Soul

Wouldn't it be wonderful to have a society where the care of others didn't have to be obligatory but would occur naturally. Where service wasn't a duty but a way of living – the way of natural love and compassion. Such a society is possible. All we have to do is wish for it – and mean it.

Welcome to our Sunday Liturgy at St. John's. Today: Eighteenth in Ord. Time

A priest once said to me that St. Paul wrote many, many letters. One of these to the Ephesians (Eph 4:1-6) last weekends second reading, has a great input into our lives as Christians.

In his letter, Paul says: "Bear with one another charitably in complete selflessness, gentleness and patience. Do all you can to preserve the unity of the Spirit, by the peace that binds us together".

We ask God, every day to forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. How do we forgive? Are we too proud to forgive in a Christ-like manner? Each of us should ask ourselves; 'Am I selfless, gentle and patient with those who have offended me? Can I display real
