THE BIBLE IN OUR EVERYDAY LIVES.
Let another praise you and not your own mouth.

Someone else and not your own lips.
(Proverbs 27:4)

If you give something to the poor, do not let your right hand know what your left hand is doing so that your gift remains really secret.
(Matthew 6:3)

QUOTE FOR THE WEEK

Conscience is God's presence in man.

QUIP FOR THE WEEK

The world needs more warm hearts and fewer hotheads.

QUESTIONS PEOPLE ASK!

Q. I am puzzled about fear of God. I feel more fear of God's judgement than any love of God. Is fear of God a good thing or bad?

A. There is a healthy fear of God and an unhealthy sort of fear. Unhealthy fear may be based on an un-loving idea of God. This makes a person self-centred and paralyses energy. A healthy fear of God brings profound reverence, humility and obedience to God's laws. This sort of fear is full of love. It is one of the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit.

GARDENING THE SOUL

Few of us can manage as adults to recapture the sheer delight of the creative, meaningless play of the child. But we can grow at any age in our ability to be playful.

Playfulness does not have to prove anything; it is not competitive; it has no why; it has no goal. Pure play – not the sort of play that has rules, like playing tennis or football, but pure, childish play – is spontaneous celebration.
Sr. Stan

HUMOUR

Men will confess to treason, murder, arson, false teeth or even wearing a wig. But not many of them will own up to a lack of humour.

...THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

The most important thing is to create; nothing else matters; creation is all. Pablo Picasso

Welcome to our Sunday Liturgy at St. John's.
Today: Twenty Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Badness comes from within.

Jesus warns against 'lip-service' in today's gospel and tells the people that badness comes from within the human heart. To be a follower of Christ requires a heart full of love. He said 'nothing that goes into a man from outside can make him unclean; it is the things that come out of a man that make him unclean.'

While evil intentions such as murder, indecency, fornication and theft are rare occurrences in our lives: avarice, malice, deceit, envy, slander and pride are more common. It is up to each of us to ask ourselves 'are we guilty of one or more of the above.' Do we put aside the commandments of God to further our worldly desires?
